INTEREST IN SERVICE CONTINUES GREAT

Unabated in the interest in the south side tent meetings. Many are being attracted to the tent not only by the forceful scriptural sermons that evangelist Smithson is preaching but by the fine singing. Last night E. P. Winkler of Harvey, led the song service and also favored the audience with a solo and Jas. R. Graves and Mrs. W. P. Stambaugh sang a duet, "Life's Railway to Heaven," which was much appreciated.

ONLY TWO TAIL LIGHTERS

Only two motorists were picked up last night in Hammond for not having their tail lights burning. It looks as though the efforts of the police are beginning to bear fruit. Those arrested were Sidney Johnson, 4017 Mc-Cook ave., East Chicago and Harold Lynch, 1204 Clark st. Chicago.

NEW MEN ARE WANTED ON FORCE

Several good men have responded to Chief Augustine's call for more men on the Hammond police force, but there are still a number of vacancies. "I can still use about ten men," said the chief this morning.
